THE FIGHT IS WELL ON

State Representatives Discussing Assessment of Corporate Property.

MR. HAMMOND'S PROPOSITION

He Will Today Introduce a Constitutional Amendment Providing for a State Tax Commission.

Special to the Gazette

Denver, Feb 8 The fight over the assessment of corporate property began in the house today during the consideration of the revenue bill Representatives Martin and Schweigert are leading the fight for the state board of equalization The discussion will probably not be concluded so that a vote can be taken before sometime Monday The principal arguments directed against the assessors proposition as submitted by the finance committee, is in relation to the meeting of the several assessors in Denver It is contended that if the assessors are not bound by any agreement at which they may arrive they will return to their several counties and assess the property as they please On the other hand, if they are bound to respect the agreement, they then become a board of assessors and according to a recent court decision, their work will be unconstitutional

That the friends of the state board of assessors have a harder fight than last year is acknowledged but they still have a good majority in the house, and that body will hold out for the assessors A poll of the house by your correspondent today showed 30 in favor of the state board of assessors 15 in favor of the state board of equalization in doubtful and three absent It is now thought to be the intention to pass the bill on second reading in the house and then submit it to the supreme court that body having said that a measure must at least have reached that stage of progress before they would consider it

Nearly every person in the assembly has some idea which he thinks will solve the question of taxation for Colorado In many cases bills and amendments are being introduced First came the Whitford-Graves constitutional amendment providing that the state board of equalization should value all corporate property according to its bonded indebtedness Then came the Ballinger a seasons feature in the revenue bill Speaker Montgomery next introduced his state board of assessment and equalization constitutional amendment as outlined in today's Gazette and tomorrow morning Representative Hammond will introduce another His will also be a constitutional amendment It will provide for a state tax commission, composed of three men appointed by the governor and approved by the senate no three of whom shall belong to the same political party, their terms of office to be six years at an annual salary of $5,000 each To this commission shall be delegated all the powers now vested in the state board of equalization according to the old law, or in the state board of assessors, according to the new law Mr Hammond says that the board of equalization could value the property this year his amendment could be adopted at the fall election, which would leave nothing to be done except for the governor to appoint the commission and the senate confirm the appointment

The judiciary committee of the house reported on the Hollenbeck bill that it did not come within the call of the governor

The house then went into the committee of the whole on the revenue bill with Representative Sprague in the chair The section of the bill as amended by the finance committee reads as follows

"The county assessors of each county within the state shall assess all property real and personal tangible and intangible corporate and individual within the limits of his county at its full cash value"

Upon the reading of this section considerable discussion arose as to whether all the sections relating to the subject of the valuing of property should be considered with this section This plan was finally adopted and the house immediately took up the work of setting whether the assessors should value all of the property or whether the equalizers should be allowed to value the corporate property. Representative McGuire the leader of the house, moved to adopt the committee report Following this came a series of motions, some of which were adopted, which placed the matter in such a condition that no amendment or substitute could be offered Representative Martin of Pueblo offered a substitute which was ruled out of order, which provided for the state board of equalization The whole matter was a parliamentary fight between the two factions to ascertain which would succeed in having their proposition voted on first The friends of the state board of assessors won and the discussion followed on the motion to adopt the provision for the state board of assessors

Representative Rawalt took the floor in support of this board He gave a history of the assessment of corporate property in the state, dwelling at length upon the Ballinger Hollenbeck bill of the twelfth general assembly which Governor Thomas vetoed, not because it was unconstitutional, but because it was not passed regularly by the senate

Representative Martin discussed the proposition favoring the equalization board He began by calling attention to the fact that the senate favored the board of equalization and this was something not to be lingered at He recited the events of the closing hours of the thirteenth general assembly when he and eight other representatives voted to recede from the assessors proposition which position he contended the courts have since upheld He contended that the state board of assessors was responsible for the present financial condition of the state, in that they were reducing the values of local property He gave the following figures to prove his assertions

Year	Railroad Valuations	Other Valuations
1891	$ 12,000,000	$200,000,000
1892	1,000,000	200,000,000
1893	12,000,000	205,000,000
1897	34,000,000	165,000,000
1901	127,000,000	337,000,000

Thus he contended that from 1893 to 1897 the railroad properties were increased $900,000 while the local property was decreased $40,000,000 He admitted that the railroad property has not been assessed at their true value, but he contended that the values had not been lowered as they had with other property He held that the railroads did not receive a just valuat on last year when compared with the local property He referred to the county assessors as a lot of lawyers real estate men insurance men and kindred persons and asked if the house thought these men would be any fairer in the valuation of railroad property than would the governor and other state officers,

Representative Hammond was the next speaker and he gave notice that he would introduce his constitutional amendment as a compromise measure tomorrow morning

Representative Schweigert was the last speaker of the evening He did not complete his address when the adjournment hour came His discussion was based upon the merits of the bill from a constitutional or legal standpoint It was he who raised the point of the power to be given the assessors during their meeting in Denver. The discussion will continue tomorrow

The senate began today's work by sending a number of queries to the attorney-general

The proposition to submit these questions brought forth a storm of opposition from members who have constitutional amendments pending. The Animas stock bill passed third reading and was sent to the house, Senator Rush offered resolutions in regard to the Boer war Adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

The committee appointed to grant resolutions in regard to the war now being conducted in South Africa will report tomorrow morning

EVIDENCE THAT SAMPSON WAS IN SUPREME COMMAND

By Associated Press.

Washington Feb 7—U S Thearl, representing Stayton & Campbell & Theall, counsel for Rear Admiral Sampson, today filed the following brief with President Roosevelt, protesting against the claim set up in Admiral Schley's appeal that he was in supreme command during the battle off Santiago.

"30 Broad Stree

"New York City, Feb. 6, 1902.

"To Theodore Roosevelt

"President of the United States.

"Sir We beg leave, as attorneys for Rear Admiral W T Sampson, and on his behalf to submit the following statement in connection with the position of Rear Admiral W S Schley, asking relief from his condemnation as reported by a court of inquiry and approved by the secretary of the navy

"No argument will be submitted as to the volunteered opinion of the presiding member of the court upon the question of command at Santiago We repeatedly applied for an opportunity to present evidence upon this point to the court and our request was at length granted and we are confident that an attempt to condemn an adverse judgment where a hearing has been denied is a violation of simple justice and it has no chance of receiving your approval We were ready then and we still stand to produce much evidence which was not offered before the court on this question We have the right to show that the statement of the New York at the beginning of the battle was out of sight of the flagship of the blockading squadron is inaccurate

We are able to show that under the regulations and the usual practice of the navy Rear Admiral Sampson was during the battle in command of every single vessel in the American line. There is abundance of testimony available to show that from the beginning of the battle every American vessel at Santiago was in sight of the New York There is evidence at hand, both record and oral, to show that whenever the commander-in-chief left the blockading line in front of Santiago he hoisted the signal "Disregard movements of commander-in-chief" proceeded to that point, where under the regular orders his immediate command of the squadron ceased and then signaled to the next in rank to take command, and that on the morning of July 3 the commander-in-chief had given instructions to have ready for hoisting the signal directing Commodore Schley to assume command that this signal was to be hoisted when under the regulations the appropriate moment arrived, that that moment had not arrived and that such signal had not been hoisted when the enemy endeavored to escape from the harbor

From the Oregon, too, there is available evidence to show that when the first shot was fired the quartermaster of the Oregon, using the long glass, could, from the position of that vessel near the center of the line read the New York's battle signals then flying

All this evidence was ready to be presented to the court of inquiry and it is ready to be presented to you. It was not admitted before the court because it refused to go into the question of command Rear Admiral Sampson has never objected and does not now object to any inquiry to determine the question of command He has, however, reported that he was in command at that battle. As commander-in-chief he has made his recommendations concerning the promotions. He has been recognized by the executive and judicial departments of the government as being in command and he asks that when the accuracy of his reports is questioned he be at least permitted to hear the evidence in opposition and to permit his brother officers to come forward with the testimony they are ready to give in his behalf.

"There is further an abundance of evidence available to establish the fact that what the applicant now calls The complete and total failure of the prearranged order of battle was due wholly to his own disobedience of the orders of the commander-in-chief The orders were to close in and to hold the enemy at the harbor s mouth Commodore Schley so understood the orders. He hoisted the very signal. Yet when he saw the enemy approaching that part of the line guarded by his own vessel, he looped. He withdrew from the battle formation, left a hole in the line, interfered with the Texas which would have stopped the gap and caused her to back, thereby giving to the enemy the double opportunity of which they availed themselves—to escape through the interval he had made

"We have no desire to prolong this controversy We only ask that before there shall be a finding adverse to Admiral Sampson either by the president, the courts or the navy department, that he be given the opportunity which has been given to Admiral Schley to present such evidence as may make both sides of the matter clear

"Very Respectfully,

"Stayton & Campbell & Theall,

"Counsel for Rear Admiral W T. Sampson"

The president will consider the brief in connection with Admiral Schley's appeal and the navy department s comments

PRESIDENT'S SON SEVERELY ILL

President's Guest See His Duties Here

AT MASSACHUSETTS SCHOOL

"HIS CONDITION LAST NIGHT WAS REPORTED HIS CONDITION COULD BE EXPECTED."

By Associated Press

Groton, Mass, Feb 7.—The condition of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr, son of President Roosevelt and a student at Groton school who is ill of pneumonia, was reported at 9 o clock tonight as being "as comfortable as could be expected" Those who are in attendance at the lad s bedside declined to give anything more definite It was understood at the school however, that the patient showed some improvement during the afternoon and early evening. Tomorrow will find the school practically deserted for a majority of the 150 students departed for their homes during the afternoon and the rest will leave in the morning

On receipt of word that Mrs Roosevelt would come to Ayer from Boston on the first morning train, arrangements were made to meet her at the station The school is about a half mile from the station

From sources outside the school it was learned that the president's son caught cold a day or two ago and that the trouble proved stubborn Last evening the symptoms grew more serious and at midnight Dr Warren, the school physician was called Remedies were prescribed at once and this morning the patient was no worse and it was hoped that aid had been given in time to check the progress of the disease This morning President Roosevelt was informed of the situation and it was suggested that the boy's mother should come to Groton This course was decided upon This afternoon an attempt was made to induce President Peabody to talk about the case but his refusal was as persistent as it had been previously He did say however, that besides abiding by the rules of the school in refusing to give out news he was acting in accordance with the express wish of President Roosevelt

"The president,' said he, 'has two reasons for not wishing me to discuss the case First, because he considers his son as of no more consequence than the sons of scores of other families represented at the school and secondly, because, the reports through no intention of those handling them, migat contain disturbing inaccuracies The wisdom of this is shown from the fact that this afternoon I have been advised of a rumor from several places that the boy is dead or dying"

President Peabody then closed the interview by saying that the sick lad was being cared for carefully at his room in the dormitory and that his mother would reach here tomorrow.

"If she wishes to give out news after she gets here" he said "she may do so"

There has been much illness at the school of late There are several other cases of pneumonia besides that of young Roosevelt and the afternoon the school was closed for two weeks on account of the prevailing sickness The boys have been in the habit of running about bareheaded all winter. This is thought to account for some of the serious colds.

PLANS OF PRESIDENT HAVE BEEN CHANGED

By Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 7—The illness of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr, has changed very greatly the plans of the president for his trip to Charleston to visit the exposition there The trip possibly may have to be abandoned altogether, but the present purpose is to make a flying visit to the exposition and to return immediately after the most important functions in which it has been arranged for the president's party to participate.

No ladies will accompany the presidential party owing to the absence of Mrs Roosevelt The president instead of leaving here Monday night will not start until Tuesday morning He will go direct to Charleston and will take part in the exercises of Wednesday and be present at the banquet and will then return to Washington, reaching here somet me Thursday The three cabinet officers who it was announced would accompany the president, Secretary Cortelyou and a stenographer will comprise the party as now arranged

The latest information received at the White house tonight from the president's son at Groton, Mass, was that his condition was a little more favorable, The president feels encouraged to hope that it may continue so and that the necessity for a visit to Groton may be avoided.

MRS. ROOSEVELT ENROUTE TO GROTON

By Associated Press

Washington, Feb. 7—Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of the president left Washington at 4 15 p m. for Groton, Mass., where their son, Theodore, Jr., is lying seriously ill of pneumonia. She is traveling in a drawing room car on the regular train of the Pennsylvania road which will go through to Boston without change arriving there tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock. From Boston the first available train will reach Groton at 10 30 a. m. Mrs. Roosevelt is accompanied only by a maid.

The first information to reach the President and Mrs. Roosevelt of the illness of their son was received at the White house at 9.15 a. m. The message was signed by the president of the college where the young man is a student and stated in effect that a slight setback had developed, that an acute and sharp attack of pneumonia had taken place and that he was seriously ill. Another message received during the forenoon stated that the young man's condition was critical. Arrangements were at once set on foot for Mrs. Roosevelt's departure for Groton the afternoon and since the first information was received the president has been in almost constant communication by telephone and telegraph with the school [illegible]

According to the earlier reports the son's condition has remained almost unchanged since morning.

CRIPPLE CREEK NEWS NOTES

Assayer Moffet Charged With Receiving Stolen Ores—The Daniels Matter.

Cripple Creek Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Cripple Creek, Feb. 7.—The preliminary hearing of E. C. Moffet, the assayer of Independence, charged with receiving stolen ore, did not take place this afternoon before Justice McCullah. Instead a direct information was filed in the district court, charging Mr. Moffet with having conspired with Hartley J. Lake, Kerch Kuykendall and John Freidstein to steal ore from the mines of Stratton's Independence, Ltd. Moffet's bond was $1,000 in the case in the justice court, but District Judge Seeds fixed the bond in the new case at $5,000, which was furnished. The prosecuting witness is Manager Shipman of Stratton's Independence mine. E. Maurice Finn and S. D. Crump are assisting the prosecution in the case, while Frank C. Hangs is representing the defendant. This case is the result of the stealing of high grade ore from the Independence mine workings, and the shooting affray which took place in the mine a short time ago in which Lee Glockner was wounded. The officers allege that they have positive information that Lake, Kuykendall and Freidstein are guilty of the robberies and that Moffet conspired with the three men to secure the high grade ore.

The appointment of Ben Daniels to be marshal of the territory of Arizona and the charges that have been made against him have created quite a little discussion in this city. Mr. Daniels has many friends in this city and the district, who denounce the interview with Jacob G. Bloom of Denver, published in a Denver paper this morning, as false in many particulars. D. C. Williams who was marshal of Cripple Creek when Ben Daniels was night marshal, said today: "Bloom had it in for Daniels over some transactions in city warrants here, and it seems that he is still keeping it up. Bloom, during 1897 and 1898 was a member of the Cripple Creek city council. The trouble between the two men arose while each was occupying an official position. When Bloom came up for re-election, Daniels fought him, and he has been sore at Daniels ever since. I know nothing of his history in Dodge City, but I believe it could be easily obtained, and I am positive that Bloom's statement will prove false. Mr. Daniels is a brave man and was a good officer, and I know he would make an admirable officer for Arizona." George Rent who has known Daniels for a number of years stated that during the time it is alleged that Daniels was serving time in the Wyoming penitentiary, that he saw him frequently in Arizona. Charles H. Berry, who is well acquainted with Mr. Daniels, having known him for a number of years past, states that he is positive Mr. Daniels was never in the Cheyenne penitentiary.

Frank A. Smith and P. F. Ropell have commenced suit in the district court against F. M. Schick, president; Charles N. Miller, vice president, and Charles Dougherty, secretary, of the Providential G. M. Co. The complaint sets forth that on December 1, 1901, and since that time, Smith has been the owner of 5,000 shares of Providential stock, and that on January 8, 1902, Mr. Smith agreed to transfer the stock to Mr. Ropell. The plaintiffs further allege that the officers of the Providential company refused to make the transfer of the stock. Upon petition, District Judge Seeds issued an alternative writ of mandamus citing the defendants to either make the transfer at once, or to appear in court and show cause why the transfer should not be made. The plaintiffs also sue for $100 damages.

The divorce suit of Lillian M. Henderson versus Samuel Henderson has been filed in the district court. The couple were married in Victor February 19, 1898, and have been residing at 322 Alamo street in that city. The plaintiff sues for divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty and asks for possession of their child, a girl, Julia, aged one year and nine months. The defendant is employed at the Deadwood mine and the New Zealand Consolidated Mining company, and is also made defendant in the suit. The plaintiff alleges that there is due her husband $145 wages for January and she asks the court to restrain the company from paying Mr. Henderson this money.

S. C. Robinson has commenced suit in the district court against J. A. Lecrritter to recover $400 and interest alleged to be due for commissions on the sale of mining property.

J. A. Whiting has commenced suit in the district court against Norah Foley and W. T. Sawyer to recover $280 with interest and to have a deed to 14-32 interest to the Hiawatha lode declared a mortgage.

The case of the People versus W. R. Davis charged with horse stealing went to the jury in the district court this evening. As yet a verdict has not been rendered.

The trial of Emil R. Smith, the colored man charged with complicity in the robbery of G. Buford, another colored man, was commenced in the district court today. Smith is alleged to be one of the three men who broke into Moore's house at 121 Womack avenue, the morning of November 16, and robbed Buford of several hundred dollars. One of the burglars, Bob McQuirter, was killed during the robbery, and another, known as Kid Butler, was shot by officers in Denver while attempting to escape arrest. Smith will attempt to prove an alibi.

A petition is being circulated in this city favoring a wide open town. At a recent meeting of the chamber of commerce, resolutions were adopted along this line, and the petition being circulated is being quite generally signed. It would appear that many of the merchants, while not favoring open gambling, nevertheless believe that gambling is necessary in a mining town.

Fred Wilson today pleaded guilty in the district court of burglary, and was sentenced by District Judge Seeds to a term of not less than three years or more than five years in the state penitentiary. Several weeks ago Wilson entered a room of Mrs. Jennie Penfeld in the Welty block and stole a valuable gold watch. He was caught while attempting to make his escape by Mrs. Penfield, and held by her until the officers arrived.

The Teller County Bar association and the board of county commissioners have each appropriated $200 to be used in the purchase of a law library to be kept in the district court room.

F. V. Bodfish and W. W. Kirby today filed a location certificate with the clerk and recorder for the Kirk lodes Nos. 1 to 7 inclusive.

W. R. Davis, accused of horse stealing, was found guilty by a jury in the district court this evening.

Out of town arrivals at the National hotel today were: W. A. Corson of Colorado Springs; S. C. Behaven and W. W. Butts of Denver; Thayer McLaren of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Ida M. Loring of Decatur, Ia.; George W. Eddy of Boston; W. N. Snow of Greenfield, Mass.; G. S. Davis of Omaha; W. A. Gavett of Detroit; D. Fountain of Norwalk, Conn.; William W. Higgins of Chicago, and L. C. F. Preston of Alger, Colo.

NEWS NOTES FROM VICTOR

Creek Fleeced Local Grocer [illegible] Over to Cripple Creek.

Victor Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Victor, Feb. 7.—By means of an old game a crook fleeced a local grocer today of $20. This morning Thomas Jack, the Victor avenue grocer, received a telephone message to send a sack of flour to the home of Dr. Davidson on Portland avenue. The man at the other end of the phone also asked that the driver bring change for $20. The grocery clerk went to the home of Dr. Davison with the flour and at the back door was met by a man with a $20 bill in his hand. The man asked the clerk for the change and at the same time told him to take the flour to the house. The clerk handed over the change to the unknown man and when he came out of the house the man had disappeared. It turned out that Dr. Davison had not ordered the flour. The same trick was performed in Cripple Creek yesterday. The crook is described as being a man about 30 years of age, smooth shaven, about 5 feet 8 inches high and wearing a Fedora hat.

It was learned tonight that the swindler found a victim in Cripple Creek. Tester as he obtained six from J. M. Slusher, a Cripple Creek grocer, by the same means he employed in Victor.

The Victor branch of the "United National Association of Post Office Clerks" this afternoon elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Paul J. Hawes; vice president, W. H. Mussy; secretary and treasurer, J. E. Strain.

The suit of Green & company, the commission firm of Denver, vs. W. S. Osborn was decided today by Justice Corbin in favor of the defendant. The plaintiff sued to recover $36 for eggs, and the court decided that the eggs were bad.

George Simonton, the stock broker, has purchased an interest in the business of the Moore Mercantile company of North Fourth street. Mr. Simonton before coming to Victor was in the grocery business for about ten years at Sedalia, Colo.

The Victor Dramatic club has a full dress rehearsal last night of "A Royal Rogue." The club will present this piece in the near future and a good production is assured.

Miss Grace Mayer has left for her home in Texas, after spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Turner Mason.

A. A. Robertone is a Colorado Springs on business.

J. W. Stonehouse has returned from Colorado Springs and Denver, where he has been on mining business.

NEWS NOTES FROM PUEBLO

Governor Orman Will Direct Mocker's Business Section [illegible] Interests.

Pueblo Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Pueblo, Feb. 7.—Plans are now being prepared by an architect in Denver for a two-story pressed brick business block to be erected on the northwest corner of Union and Abriendo avenues by Governor J. B. Orman, and the contract for the building will be let about March 1. The block will have a frontage of 50 feet on Union avenue by 90 feet on West Abriendo avenue, and its construction will be strictly modern. The block when finished will cost about $20,000.

County Commissioner D. S. Taylor was morning received official notice of his election as grand warden of the I. O. O. F. There were four other candidates for the post from various parts of the state, but Dr. Taylor received 146 votes more than the next highest on the list and about 500 more than the lowest. The election was held early last December, but the result was not made known until today, when the official returns were received. Dr. Taylor has been a member of the Odd Fellows for 18 years.

Witnesses are being subpoenaed today for the trial of Antonio Papa which is set for next Monday in the district court. Papa is charged with the murder of Antonio Martinez and Juan Gonzales at a dance in Salt Creek at which he had charge of the floor. The trial is expected to last several days.

The Colorado Retail Butchers and Grocers association which holds its second annual convention in this city February 8 and 9. A large crowd is expected to attend and every city of any size in the state will be represented.

John T. Justin, foreman of the firemen for the Pueblo Traction company, who was injured Wednesday evening, died last night.

Walter Clark, the young shoe clerk who was employed by the Brown Shoe company, is no longer an inmate of the county jail. The charge of grand larceny was withdrawn by the district attorney this morning.

The special meeting of the city council was called to order this evening at 7:30 o'clock by Chairman Flynn. The matter of the sewer contract was argued, but no action was taken. Citizens of Pueblo have begun to think that if they get a storm and sanitary sewer in Pueblo, they will be compelled to let the contract, as the council cannot agree. This is the seventh time the sewer question has been before the council. Quite a great deal of talk can be heard on the streets and in the business houses about the councilmen in the council. If the council fails to let the contract for the sewer next Monday evening, it is rumored that there will be a mass meeting called and a committee appointed to investigate the matter. It is also rumored that a grand jury will be called for the same purpose.

The welcome number for the Pueblo Bureau of the Gazette appears elsewhere in this issue. Subscription, advertising or news communications of the paper will receive prompt attention by calling that number. O. M. Sysman is the agent in charge.

$2.00 Shoes for 99c
$3.00 Shoes for $1.48
$4.00 Shoes for $1.98
$5.00 Shoes for $2.48

Gold Dollars at 50c

Would seem an absurdity; but [illegible] are the prices here quoted on new, stylish, dependable footwear—two pairs for the price of one; however, there's no joke in our madness—we're overburdened with shoes, and must reduce stock. As usual in such cases, we've adopted heroic measures that will accomplish the end.

This morning at 8 o'clock we start a wonderful value-giving Shoe Sale, which will eclipse all records heretofore attempted by us, or any other concern in the city. Shoes at less than cost of the material. Extra salespeople to serve you.

COFFEE EYES.

It Attacks Many Persons There.

To illustrate how coffee can affect the eyes the words of a lady in Woodbine, Ia., are quoted.

"I was brought up to believe that tea was injurious but was allowed to drink coffee from childhood. Ever since I can remember I have been subject to severe attacks of headache, otherwise my health was pretty good until a short time ago my eyes became affected; they ached and pained me continually and were often badly inflamed. I also had short, dizzy feelings in my head almost continually.

"One time we were obliged to go without milk or cream for a few weeks, and not relishing my coffee clear, left off its use. In a short time I was surprised to find my eyes greatly improved, and I felt better in every way, still I did not mistrust the coffee and began its use as soon as we got cream again. Within a few days my eyes were worse than ever. Then I resolved to quit coffee absolutely and take up Postum. This did and my eyes quickly recovered.

"My experience shows that while coffee caused headache and eye trouble Postum Food Coffee does not produce any bad effects whatever and is greatly strengthening and nourishing." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Carrie Is Willing to Visit This City

Carrie Nation has given the chamber of commerce a gentle hint that she is open to engagements to do her famous smashing stunt, and that she is entirely willing to come to Colorado Springs if she is given a round trip ticket to this city, and "other considerations." Just what action the chamber of commerce will take, has not yet been determined, for while it is responsible for the hospitality of the city of Colorado Springs, it also has regard for its friends here, and thus is placed in a rather delicate position. Although there is no money in the treasury for such advertisements, this would probably not deter Carrie, who has been known to do her star act gratuitously.

Her letter, uncensored, and just as it was received by the chamber of commerce, is as follows:

Topeka, Kansas, Feb. 3, 1902.

Dear Sir:—I met a Dr. Berry on cars he said he was your agent asked me to come to Colorado Springs this summer. I told him I could come the month of June I now find out I can only come the 1st-20 days what do you propose to give me? I will ask a round trip ticket from this place will wish to hear from you an offer of other considerations.

Would like to spend this time in so nice a place as Colorado Springs.

Let me hear from you

Your Home Defender

Carrie A. Nation.

Road Question Came Near Being Settled

The cemetery road question had a narrow escape from being settled by the city council last night.

After months of controversy with the county commissioners, the cemetery committee seems to have reached an agreement with the county authorities relative to the building of the new road through the western part of the cemetery. Alderman Madden moved in the council last night that the city clerk be instructed to advertise for bids for the construction of the road, but some of the aldermen objected, and there will be more delay before the work of building the road will be begun.

The commissioners have agreed to vacate the old county road through the cemetery if the new one is constructed according to the plans of the city engineer, approved by the commissioners. The council decided last night that the city clerk may advertise for bids as soon as the arrangements with the commissioners are approved by the city attorney. The agreement between the council's committee is only verbal, and will probably have to be put in writing.

GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER INSTALLED OFFICERS

The Glen Eyrie chapter of the Eastern Star in Colorado City, held its annual installation of officers last night in the K. of P. hall. The officers for the year are: Mrs. L. M. Bates, worthy matron; Rev. Dr. Lucas, patron; Mrs. Butler, associate patron; Mrs. Pack, conductress; Mrs. Drew, associate conductress; Miss Maud Wilbur, secretary, and Mrs. Irvin, treasurer. The five points of the star are: Mesdames Weston, Delaney, England, Godfrey and Broecle.

The meeting was well attended, many members of the order being present from the Springs. This chapter has now 121 members.

DINNER GAVE SUCCESSFUL MASQUERADE BALL

The masquerade ball given last night at St. Mary's hall in Colorado City, was a success beyond the hopes of the ladies managing the affair, about $70 being cleared. The ball was given by the choir of St. Mary's to pay for the improvements made in the parsonage during Father Howlett's absence on his recent trip to Denver.

Nearly 200 people were present, and many of the costumes were cleverly conceived. Prof. Mercier, as a French courtier, and Miss Florence Lattner as a ballet dancer, deserve special mention because of the excellence of their fancy costumes. Among the character costumes those worn by George Geiger as line officer of the Continental army; Emery White, Mexican vaquero; John Rowan, "Rube;" and Frank Thompson, as the "lady in green," deserve special mention among the gentlemen, and Mrs. E. W. Colbert, "old maid," and Miss Melsenbach as "a dame of '76," among the ladies.

The next entertainment to be given under the auspices of the church will be the presentation of the pass on play pictures in the Waycott opera house on February 19.

BUSINESS MEN'S TRAP NARROWLY ESCAPE

There was a large attendance at the Pastimes Gun club shoot at Colorado City yesterday, and some excellent scores were made, George Geiger taking first honors with a percentage of 80, and Mr. Fisher second with 75. Good averages were made by Messrs. Rimmer, Birdsell, Smalley, Moats, Delaney, Falk and Dr. Dooley.

Dr. Dooley and Mr. Falk were badly scared by what might have been a serious accident. They were standing together talking when the gun held by Mr. Falk was accidentally discharged. The gun was luckily pointed downward, and its contents were discharged into the ground between the two gentlemen, startling them considerably, but doing no damage beyond blowing a hole in the ground.

CITIZENS STOP A DRUNKEN MANIAC

A man who gave his name as Chauncy Rullison, 45 years old, was arrested about 11 o'clock last night at Cucharras and Tejon streets. He was making threats that he would kill himself and was promptly taken into custody. He is said to be insane.

Rullison was locked up in the "bridal chamber" at the city jail. The county physician will be asked to examine him today as to his sanity. The prisoner is said to have a family in Cripple Creek.

ALLEN PLACED FOOTBALL COACH

The Colorado college athletic board met last evening at the residence of the president, W. F. Armstrong. The meeting was called to discuss the question of a coach for the football team next season.

Packard and Johnson, composing the committee which had been appointed to make investigations, reported that they were in favor of securing the services of William Allen as coach. All the other members of the board seemed to think Allen is the man for the place, but no definite action was taken until the question of salary is talked over with Allen.

NEW APARTMENT HOUSE FOR THE WEST SIDE

Plans are being prepared for a 20-room apartment house to be built in West Colorado Springs on Grant avenue between First and Second streets. This will be the first apartment house built in that part of the city, and one of the few houses of the kind in the city. Dr. S. S. Satterlee is building the house, and intends that it shall be modern in every detail, and architecturally a perfect outfit. Architect T. J. Cree of Colorado City has the plans in preparation, and every detail that goes to make up a perfect structure is receiving the closest attention. There has long been a demand for a building of the kind on the west side, and Dr. Satterlee's aim is that the plan and arrangement of the apartments shall fully meet the requirements of the most fastidious of tenants.

[illegible] St. Mary's church in Colorado City was yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Geiger to Oliver Stephenson, jr., Esq. The bride was attended by Mrs. Van Cleave, Mrs. [illegible] and Miss [illegible] were present.

RESIGNATION OF MOSES T. HALE

WAS TENDERED TO THE COUNCIL AND ACCEPTED THERE.

Some Details of a Settlement With the Former Treasurer are Yet Unsettled—The Bonding Company.

Moses T. Hale is still technically the city treasurer of Colorado Springs.

His resignation was presented to the city council at the meeting last night, but was not accepted and until it is accepted he will be the only city treasurer that Colorado Springs can have. The resignation was ordered filed, and will be taken up and acted upon as soon as some details in the settlement between the city and Moses T. Hale are arranged.

The finance committee desired a receipt in full from Mr. Hale before the resignation is acted upon. Just what the receipt is for is not stated, as so far as known Mr. Hale does not make any claim against the city. Mr. Clark considers it expedient, however, as a purely precautionary measure, to have a receipt in full or release of any claim that might be brought up.

Mr. Hale has stated his willingness to sign anything in the nature of such a document and it is expected that the resignation will be accepted at the meeting tomorrow.

LAKE PARK ADDITION NOT YET ADDED

The Lake Park addition to Colorado Springs last night knocked at the door of the city and again asked admittance to the fold. It was again put off because the objections that existed when the plats were first presented to the council still exist.

The plat does not meet with the approval of the members of the council, for the reason that Moreno avenue, which is 100 feet wide in Colorado Springs, is narrowed down in this addition to 80 feet.

The health department of the city objects seriously to the admission of any more additions to Colorado Springs in which the streets and alleys are not in strict conformance with the same in Colorado Springs. The reason for it lies in the fact that where the streets and alleys do not conform it is difficult to extend the water and sewer systems in a satisfactory and sanitary manner.

The Lake Park proposition has been referred by the city council to the streets committee, city engineer and city attorney.

OFFICER DART—Upon recommendation of the mayor, Leroy Dart was last night elected a special police officer without pay. He is the janitor at the new Mining Exchange building.

WANT SEWER EXTENSION—Residents of Wahsatch avenue and Corona street from San Rafael street to Columbia have petitioned the city council to extend the sewer north to Columbia street through the alley east of Wahsatch. The matter is in the hands of the sewer committee.

COMMITTEE OF CONGRESSMEN ON COLORADO SPRINGS

Special to the Gazette.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 8.—Representative Shafroth today introduced a bill appropriating $25,000 for a public building at Boulder.

The senate building committee will meet tomorrow. The committee has adopted a rule not to report favorably on bills providing buildings for cities in which United States courts do not hold sessions. This rule, if enforced, will bar Colorado Springs, Laramie, Wyo., and other cities from public buildings. Senator Warren who introduced the bill will make an effort to have the rule modified so that these cities and others where postoffice business justifies may receive recognition.

GROWTH OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

City Council Listened to Mrs. Dunbar's Annual Report on the Work.

MORE FUNDS ARE WANTED

Treasurer Hill also Submits a Report to the Aldermen—Appropriation not Likely to be Increased.

The report of Mrs. S. T. Dunbar, librarian at the Colorado Springs public library, was read to the members of the city council last evening and shows a year's work that is of exceptional credit to those in whose hands the management of the institution rests. The year has been one of growth and prosperity and the indications are that the library will be a constantly increasing factor in the educational life of the city.

The reading of the report of Mrs. Dunbar in the city council meeting, followed by the reading of the report of Treasurer F. B. Hill, was for the purpose of impressing upon the members of the council the importance of the institution in the life of the city and of showing the need for an increase in the annual appropriation for the library made by the council.

Last year's appropriation was $2,700 and an increase of $800 was asked for. Strong arguments were made to show the good that could be done with the additional money, but the aldermen, in making their outline of the appropriations ordinance for the coming year, scheduled the public library for the same appropriation that it had a year ago.

This is in line with the declared policy of the finance committee as spoken for last night by Chairman Clark.

Mrs. Dunbar's report for 1901 was as follows:

Notwithstanding the increased demands upon the public library during 1900 as in previous years, the year 1901 opened with no increase in the amount of its funds. The work planned for the year looked, under the circumstances, somewhat doubtful of accomplishment; but it was resolved that the library should not be stunted in its growth, it should not run behind in its finances and our plans should be accomplished so far as our own efforts could bring these things to pass. By strenuous endeavor and hearty co-operation the library force has done its full share, and the sympathy and cordial support of trustees, county commissioners and friends have helped to make this the banner year in the library's history.

To extend the privileges of the library to the people of El Paso county, and to establish a children's department were the special objects to be accomplished and these are now established facts. Through the public spirit of the county commissioners who appropriated $500 the library is open to the county of El Paso on the same conditions as to the city of Colorado Springs as well as through the six traveling libraries located respectively at Monument, Fountain, Eastonville, Falcon, Calhan and Peyton. Reports from these libraries show that they are appreciated and the influence of good books is already felt. It is to be hoped that the board of county commissioners will continue the appropriation that more libraries may be sent out.

The children's department has a corner of its own with a large table and eight chairs, the gift of the Woman's Literary club of this city, the third time that this club has substantially remembered the public library. This corner is going to be a benefit in many ways although it is very, very far from our ideal; but it is a beginning. It is greatly hampered by the need of new books and by the worn and battered condition of the old ones. We have been enabled to place on these shelves recently nearly 100 new ones but they are hardly more than a "drop in the bucket," so many more are needed; we need, most emphatically need 500 more at least, and wantever funds, over and above running expenses of the library may this year be placed at the disposal of the trustees, the greater part should be applied to this department. The fiction department takes care of itself by the 5-cent plan which has been in operation a little more than a year. The reference department is very well supplied for the coming year and the older classes are not suffering; as a rule almost any class gets more gifts than the juvenile.

The catalogue has been completed except the government publications; the first months of this work. Outside of these books the library numbers 7,200 volumes.

Gifts.

No such large individual gifts of books have come to the library as during 1899 and 1900; but our friends are many and we have received 26 bound books, 24 paper covers, 17 magazines and 67 other publications. A large and handsome desk and bookcase combined was given by Mrs. Dunbar; two pictures and two ornamental vases by Mrs. George Parsons. The paper dolls used daily have for several years been donated by the Out West Printing company; and this year the Paces Publishing company has given as many also; altogether we have used upwards of 14,000 of these slips. The Wahsatch company has supplied rolls nearly a dozen years and it would amount to several gallons. We are indebted to many friends for small sums of money and for help in the library work as well as for words of appreciation and encouragement, which make work for much. The Woman's Literary club of this city gave their third gift to the library, this to be used in the children's department.

The purchase of books this year includes, Encyclopedia Britannica, 25 volumes; Lippincott's, Westlake; Universal, Horozy, 10 volumes; [illegible] of the Presidents, 10 volumes; [illegible] 10 volumes; most of the books mentioned to go to the Northwestern Library association have also been received, [illegible] that we are on the shelves, and 300 are [illegible]. Many additional [illegible] will be purchased as the revenue warrants. The [illegible] of a [illegible] library in a city of 15,000 population is [illegible] the support of a city of 25,000 population, and if we have the funds we can get all the books we need. Last year we bought 1,000 volumes, but we have this year 7,200 volumes.

STRIKE OF COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES

By Associated Press.

Denver, Feb. 6.—The trouble between the faculty and the students of the State School of Mines at Golden, Colo., which has caused the suspension of work in that institution for more than a week, has been settled, temporarily at least. Acting upon instructions from Governor Orman, the trustees of the school today became all-day meeting in Golden at which members of the faculty and a committee of the students were heard, and this evening the board announced that it had decided to comply with the request of the students that they take the whole matter out of the hands of the faculty, make a thorough investigation of the present and past troubles and decide the case on its merits. It also announced that the students had agreed to return to their classes tomorrow and to abide by the decision of the board. The faculty has agreed to postpone the examinations which were to have begun next week. It is believed that the matter will be adjusted without further delay.

OIL BOOM AT GLENWOOD SPRINGS

Special to the Gazette.

Glenwood Springs, Feb. 6.—The Great Western Oil Co., in boring a well at Parachute, struck a good body of oil today at a depth of 600 feet. The oil is of the same excellent grade as that encountered some time ago in the well at Debeque. The discovery of oil in the second well has added to the excitement already at a high pitch.

Messrs. Parker and Daniel of Colorado Springs, were at Debeque today where they secured additional property. They have ordered two complete drilling outfits which were loaded at Florence today and will be shipped to the Debeque field where the two companies represented by the gentlemen will each begin sinking a well at once. Other capitalists are on the ground and land is in great demand. During the last few days the country between Glenwood and Aspen has rapidly sprung into favor as an oil territory and the country is already pretty thoroughly staked.

[illegible] SYSTEM IN PHILIPPINES

that nothing could be done to change the conditions in that respect.

"We can sell all the hemp we can raise," he said. "The effect of the provision would be greater on sugar. I apprehend that the anxiety of foreigners to secure the hemp product of the Philippines had led to the furnishing of much of the stores of war of the Filipinos."

Explaining the reason for the adoption of the specific system, Governor Taft said this had been done in order to save both time and expense. "Wherever Chinamen are found," he added, "smuggling is a fine art."

In reply to a question from Senator Culberson concerning the effect of placing a lower tariff on American imports from the Philippines than upon Philippine exports from the United States, Governor Taft explained that the committee had devoted no time to the Dingley tariff law.

"We were looking solely after the interests of the Philippines," he said, "and it is true that the lower we get duties on our goods shipped to the United States, the more trade will be developed."

In this connection Senator Patterson reminded the witness that he had in his report recommended a reduction of 50 per cent, and asked why such a reduction had been suggested. Governor Taft replied:

"I am bound to say that at present our principal reason for asking a reduction is sentimental. The reduction of 50 or even 75 per cent. on Philippines imports into the United States would not be great for the next few years and any concession of that character would be beneficial in our dealing with the people of the Philippines. If we can go back to them and say that congress has recognized them in this, they will appreciate the discrimination in their favor. Such a course on the part of congress will be a great aid in giving them assurance of the friendly feeling of the American people. The exact effect of such a reduction is difficult to estimate. Tobacco would be benefited somewhat, as would sugar, the product of this latter article amounting to about 175,000 or 200,000 tons annually. But I am assured by the planters that the benefit of the proposed reduction would not be great in actual money saving."

Asked to explain the statement in his report that the reduction would cause commerce with the Islands to be increased by "leaps and bounds Governor Taft replied:

"That is a theoretical expression, but we want the reduction very much."

A PRIVATE COMMUNICATION.

IT NOW appears that at the time the report of Expert Krause on the gale shortage was presented to the chairman of the finance committee, there was also handed to him a sealed envelope, marked "Private and personal," and at the same time there was delivered to the city clerk a similar envelope, marked: "Part of Expert Krause's report—to be opened only upon order of the mayor or a member of the city council." It is also rumored that a third copy was delivered to another city official.

Whether this was indeed a part of the report of Expert Krause and whether it was really a personal communication to the chairman of the finance committee is not a matter of vital importance. That it contained a part of the findings of the expert who investigated the city finances, that it was the result of such investigation, that it concerned the city's business, and that it was paid for by the taxpayers, would appear to settle the question of whether it is a matter of public concern and one that ought to be set before the public.

The contents of this "private communication" have not as yet officially been made public. The Gazette has already given a fair idea of what they are. Instead of the city having a cash surplus of assets over liabilities of some $2,000, the report shows that the city books show an actual deficit of some $77,000.

There is some room for a difference of opinion as to the exact figures. Experts differ, and bookkeeping experts are particularly liable to have individual ways of looking at things.

For instance, the water rents are paid in December for six months in advance and the amounts so paid in are available immediately for use in the payment of outstanding warrants. One expert might insist that any warrants so paid should not be counted as outstanding indebtedness, while another might declare that money collected in advance could not be reckoned as actual cash available until the month for which it is paid has arrived. This, we understand, is the opinion of Mr. Krause. In December about $30,000 was paid into the city treasury for water rents, and Mr. Krause believes that only one-sixth of this can fairly be counted as December business, while the other five-sixths, or about $25,000, cannot be considered as reducing the floating indebtedness, even though warrants have actually been paid with it.

Then there is the matter of unpaid taxes. It is evident that while the taxes of 1900 yet unpaid may include a large proportion of perfectly good accounts, those of 1899 are much less valuable, and those of 1898 still less so, while only very small amounts should be allowed for uncollected taxes that are five or more years old. Mr. Krause has made a careful estimate of the city assessments account, and the result, while far below the face value of the taxes due, is much nearer the actual value.

It is not the purpose of the Gazette to argue for or against Mr. Krause's plan of reckoning the city indebtedness. That is probably something concerning which a good deal may be said on both sides. The important fact is that Mr. Krause did make such an estimate, and this estimate was presented to the finance committee, and by the finance committee this part of the report was suppressed and concealed both from the council and from the newspapers.

Why this should be done, the Gazette is unable to state. Sensational rumors have been in circulation in regard to the matter which were likely to do far more injury to the credit of the city than the publication of this part of the report could possibly have done. But it should have been evident from the beginning that the policy of concealment was useless as well as mischievous, that the facts were bound to be made known sooner or later and that in the meantime the policy of attempted concealment was the worst possible one for all concerned. The facts are not such as need affect the credit of the city in any injurious fashion, and the right thing to have done was to have made them public without delay. Then it would be in order to discuss them and to ascertain their exact significance and to provide proper remedies for any evils that may be shown to exist.

Publicity is one of the essentials of clean government. The concealment of information upon public matters is an incentive to corruption and the opportunity of evil. It is a part of the duty of an honest newspaper to keep the public informed as to what is going on in public affairs, and the Gazette will not hesitate at all times to get and to give to the public the facts in matters of public concern, regardless of whether they may be held as "private communications," and regardless, too, of any doubts as to whether the public may safely be trusted with such information.

THE CITY APPROPRIATIONS.

THE VARIOUS committees of the city council and the council itself have a most serious problem on their hands in determining the appropriations to be made for the support of the city government in the coming year.

Such a measure is always a difficult one in a city like Colorado Springs. The growth of the city has been very rapid, and the increase in population has brought a corresponding demand for increased expenditures in every department. Water works, sewers, lighting, fire and police protection, streets and viaducts, and in fact nearly every department of the city government, have been the subject of increased demands upon the council from the citizens: demands based upon a reasonable sense of what the city owes to the people who have come to live here and to contribute their share towards building up the city.

These demands that the new residents of the city shall be entitled to the same advantages as the older residents, and that all residents, new as well as old, shall be supplied with what over looks to the latest and most improved conditions of municipal government are the more imperative because the population of this city is of a class that knows what the best is and insists upon having it. It is not only a question of water, but of water that is both pure and abundant; the sanitary conditions of the city must be such as are beyond reproach or suspicion; and in general the city government in all its departments must be up with that of the best of the older communities of the country where the accumulated capital of decades is available for improvement and maintenance.

And it is absolutely essential that our city should have these things. The very life of the city becomes upon it. It is the good and abundant water supply, the sewer system, the public lighting, the care of the streets, the sufficient police and fire protection, the enforcement of city ordinances and other things of the sort that draw people to Colorado Springs and enable it to maintain its position as the foremost residence city of the Rocky Mountain region.

But all these things cost money, and there is a limit beyond which the drawing power of public improvements cannot act in opposition to the contrary power of high taxation. Public improvements attract visitors; high taxation drives them away; it is a difficult matter for the council to strike the happy medium which, all things considered, will bring the best result.

The members of the council know these things, for they are impressed upon the councilmen by daily experience. But there are a good many people outside of the council who do not know them, or, if they do, they forget about them. That is the reason why one set of voters is continually crying for more liberal expenditures while another set is complaining with equal force of high taxation, while many individuals change from one set to the other with that inconsistency which is allowable only to those who are not held to consistency by an official position.

It may, however, be safely assumed that the council will do the best it can under the circumstances. The appropriations should be liberal and strictly economical. There should be a general reduction all along the line to meet the complaints of those who find their taxes too high, and a liberal increase to suit the ideas of those who wish no restrictions upon our rapidly growing city. Each one of the departments should share its proportionate share of the reduction, but should not be crippled for its legitimate work.

No one could accomplish a perfect adjustment of these conflicts and it remains to be seen how much of a success the present council will make of it.

THILLMAN'S LATEST OUTBREAK.

IS VERY doubtful whether Senator Tillman could say or do anything that would add to the general disrepute and disesteem in which he is held by the great body of the American people. This person is already regarded as one of the most regrettable of American political accidents, and we all feel sorry for the state that has to bear the chief burden of his disgrace resulting from his prominence in national affairs.

Senator Tillman, however, like most others of his kind, is not without some benefit to the general public. He is such a conspicuous nuisance and disgrace that he is an example of evil that weakens any cause he advocates and makes less attractive any policy he champions.

When Senator Tillman shows himself in the senate as a Democrat he simply calls attention to the fact that a large element of the Democratic party as at present constituted in the south is composed of men like Tillman, and thus he makes it more difficult for that party to receive the support of American citizens, or to be placed in control of American political affairs. When Senator Tillman almost in the same breath advocates negro lynching in the south and unrestricted license to brigands and savages in the Philippines, he only serves to supply an anti-vote against the more dangerous opinions of such impractical theorists as Senator Hoar and such narrow partisans as Senator Dubois.

It is to be regretted, for the honor and credit of the nation, that this man is temporarily in a position where he is in any sense representative of the people, or of any part of them. But such men as he are not dangerous, and he may possibly be of good if he serve to arouse the national pride and to stimulate the national conscience.

MRS. CARRIE NATION'S PROPOSAL.

THE LETTER that was received by the chamber of commerce the other day, purporting to come from the redoubtable Mrs. Carrie Nation, should not be considered in a spirit of levity.

It is a serious matter.

The Gazette is not disposed to question the authenticity of the letter that has been received, neither will it guarantee its authenticity or genuineness. We assume that it was written by the Mrs. Carrie Nation, and we proceed upon that assumption.

Mrs. Nation informs the chamber of commerce that she is unengaged for the first 20 days of next June, and proceeds directly to the main point, which, do you propose to give me? A woman less direct in her methods and with less business experience might have wasted more words without disclosing her real meaning. Mrs. Nation is simple and sincere. What do you propose to give me?

The question is worthy of the consideration of the chamber of commerce, and the officers of that organization should not shirk the responsibility. The eyes of the people of the city and of the state are upon them, and they should meet the question fairly and frankly.

Mrs. Nation should not be left in doubt. She "would like to spend this time in some nice place as Colorado Springs." This is most creditable to her good judgment. She wants a round-trip ticket and an offer of "other considerations." This is indicative of her good business instincts.

Mrs. Nation wants to know what the chamber of commerce proposes to give her.

The chamber of commerce should tell her, and it is to be hoped that this will settle the matter.

THE NEW STATE NEWSPAPER.

IS 33 miles from Debeque in Mesa county to Parachute in Garfield county. There has already been considerable talk about the oil discoveries at Debeque, and the Gazette has had several articles relating to the subject. The discovery reported at Parachute reported in these columns yesterday morning is something new and is of considerable importance.

The oil strike at Parachute indicates that the Debeque oil field extends over a large area and justifies the belief, previously expressed in these columns, that the oil territory in western Colorado comprises a large part of Mesa, Garfield, Rio Blanco and Routt counties.

It is entirely improbable that the only oil to be found in that region is at Debeque and Parachute. There is a very strong likelihood that productive wells will be opened in the near future, not only at these two places, but at others, and that an important oil field will be developed.

A strange breach of promise suit was recently won in an Iowa court, in which the defendant was a deaf mute. Probably an accurate lawyer might object to such a statement, but it serves for the layman's purpose. The mute had attempted to marry the plaintiff, but had postponed the ceremony, and before the couple could be married, died. The suit was brought for the purpose of establishing the heirship of the plaintiff in a part of the defendant's estate and was opposed by the plaintiff. There is no serious moral in it, it is simply another case of love's labor lost.

THE REST OF THE REPORT OF EXPERT GUSTAV KRAUSE

Document Is in the Custody of the City Clerk Awaiting the Call of Some Member of the City Council—Mr. Clark Has a Copy.

TO BE OPENED UPON REQUEST OF THE MAYOR OR ANY OF THE NEWSPAPERS OF THE
CITY COUNCIL.

Part of My Report
of Jan. 27, 1902.
Gustav Krause.

The above is the superscription on a large sized envelope that is in the possession of the city clerk of Colorado Springs and has been in his possession since the report of Gustav Krause was submitted to the city council and published in the Gazette was turned over to the clerk by the expert.

The Gazette stated in connection with its publication of that part of the report which it was able to secure that there remained a portion of the report unpresented to the council and to the press in which there purported to be shown to exist a floating indebtedness and accumulated arrearage of approximately $77,000, which would bring the total arrearage in city finances, including the said $77,000, the interest paid on warrants, the deficit in water and cemetery funds and the fire shortage, up to the sum of approximately $184,000. The only information that the people of the city could get from the finance committee or from any other source than the Gazette was that this total was $107,000.

The envelope, the superscription of which is quoted above, contains the portion of the report of the expert that states the existence of this floating indebtedness of $77,000 and purports to tell how it is made up.

There are in existence two more copies of this portion of the report one of which is in the hands of Alderman E. R. Clark, chairman of the finance committee, the other of which is said to have been handed to another official.

The action of the Gazette, in giving the taxpayers of the city full benefit of its best information as to what were the findings of the expert whom the people were paying for a nine-months examination of the books and records of M. T. Hale has not resulted in jeopardizing the credit of the city of Colorado Springs and the reason why the finance committee has not seen fit to have this portion of the expert's report read to the city council and placed before the people whose money has paid for its preparation does not seem to be entirely clear. Alderman Clark, when asked yesterday why the matter had not been made public with the portion of the report which he handed to the papers a week ago today, said that he considered it a personal communication from the expert to him and not a portion of the report. When asked to request the document of the city clerk and permit its publication Mr. Clark said that he did not consider himself the proper person to take this action but that it should be taken by the president of the council or some other alderman. Mr. McIntyre could not be located until after the city clerk's office had closed. Mr. McMillan states that when the report of Mr. Krause was handed to him, including the part under the separate cover referred to, he was cautioned to let no one see it as it was a matter that should be opened by the city council in executive session. He states that up to the present time no member of the council has requested the document or asked to have it brought before the council.

The Gazette is reliably informed that Aldermen Clark and Stark have read the document. It is in the possession also of City Clerk McMillan. The clerk's copy is under seal.

Mr. Clark states, however, that he will insist upon a complete statement of the city's financial condition according to the treasurer's books, within 30 days after the close of the present fiscal year, according to law.

If the rest of the members of the council have not known until this morning that they have not had the full report of expert Krause it is possible that some one of them will today or at the meeting tonight request the opening of the envelope that the clerk has. However, it may be that the entire city government will be content with having read so much of the report as has been turned over to them by the finance committee and with having ordered that portion of the result of the expert's work to be placed on file among the archives of the city.

Judge Robinson Has Handsome Loving Cup

The High school battalion yesterday presented to Judge W. C. Robinson a handsome silver loving cup in token of their friendship and appreciation of his efforts in securing for the cadets their equipment of rifles. The presentation took place at the school in the afternoon.

Judge Robinson was invited to visit the school to see the cadets drill after the classes were dismissed. The cadets and other students assembled in the auditorium and when Judge Robinson appeared Orin Randolph, major of the battalion, made a neat speech thanking the judge for his interest in behalf of the cadets. He then presented the loving cup.

Judge Robinson responded feelingly in accepting the gift. Major McAllister also addressed the boys, complimenting them for their appreciation of Judge Robinson's interest in them.

After the presentation the battalion gave an exhibition drill on Platte avenue.

Ben Daniels' Record in El Paso County

Ben Daniels, alleged to be a "bad" man, with a record of two murders, who has just been appointed marshal at Phoenix, Arizona, by President Roosevelt, made his headquarters in Colorado Springs in 1894 and 1895. He was commander of one of Sheriff Bowers' companies of deputies during the "Bull Pen" war at Cripple Creek in '94, and lived here for nearly two years while a guard for the Wells Fargo Express company.

Pending an investigation of the charges against Daniels, President Roosevelt has suspended the alleged murderer from office, and if it is proven that he is a criminal he will be dismissed from the office to which he has just been appointed.

Daniels' enemies say that he has been a dive keeper and gambler, and that in the early days of Dodge City, Kan., he killed a man in cold blood. It is also alleged that he killed a man at Ingalls, Kan.

Most of the time he lived here Daniels was employed as a guard and detective by the Wells Fargo Express company. He was known as a man without fear. During the Bull Pen excitement at Cripple Creek he was considered as one of the most dangerous men among the deputies. Wherever he was peaceable and orderly and has many friends.

He was one of the El Paso county members of the Rough Riders regiment. His last visit to Colorado Springs was in the latter part of last summer when he attended the reunion of the Rough Riders here during the Quarto-centennial celebration. Colonel Roosevelt gave him a very warm greeting upon meeting him here at that time.

[illegible] SPEAKS IN [illegible]

To the Editor of the Gazette:

Having been informed that to some people my report seemed to cast reflections upon the books of City Auditor I. S. Harris, I desire to state that no criticism has been intended by me and that his statements as to the financial condition of the city and as rendered to the public, are correct and in accordance with his books. Gustav Krause.

[illegible] CONTRACT

Mr. William Andrews of Clinton, Iowa, has been awarded the contract for the mural decoration of the new Methodist church. The contract was awarded several days ago. Mr. Andrews has been in the city for some time, but left last night for the east. He will return within three weeks with a corps of skilled artists to complete the work.

Mr. Andrews is known all over the United States for his artistic skill. Although his bid for the work was by no means the lowest figure, the building committee of the church was unanimous in its opinion of the superiority of Mr. Andrews' work, and was willing to pay a higher figure to secure him. Mr. Andrews is now engaged in decorating two large churches in Lincoln, Neb., and has also been awarded the contract for the interior decoration of the new million-dollar federal building at Milwaukee. He has also done the mural work in several of the rooms of Congressional hall, in Washington. Just what the scheme of decoration of the new Methodist church will be will not be made public until Mr. Andrews returns from the east. The building committee, however, says that it will surpass anything of the kind in this part of the state. The church itself is built on rather unusual lines, and the interior of the church will be of a high artistic standard to compare with the other parts of the church.

POLICY GAME WAS [illegible] SOON

The police suspect that a policy game is being run in Colorado Springs. Lafayette Jones, colored, was arrested about 8 o'clock yesterday morning by Detectives Gregory and Atkinson, accused of selling policy, and was fined $10 and costs in police court by Judge Hammond. He paid the fine and costs and was released.

Jones admitted that he was selling policy, but said that the drawings were made in Cripple Creek. He refused to admit that a policy wheel was being run in Colorado Springs and the officers were unable to locate such a wheel.

CHARGED WITH [illegible] MORTGAGED GOODS

A warrant was sworn out yesterday by F. F. Roby, of the F. F. Roby company, for the arrest of C. S. Harroun, on the charge of concealing and transferring mortgaged property. Constable Fielenberger and Detective Atkinson arrested Harroun at his home, No. 820 Valley avenue, last night, and he was released under bail pending a hearing.

Harroun is believed to have concealed a set of harness and a wagon bed which he mortgaged to Mr. Roby.

Men Love in Their Work.

The man is in his work. All is unstable that is done by a dishonest builder, but an honest mason puts his soul into every stone he lays, and mixes character with his mortar. If Manhattan Island, on which is built the great city of New York, were suddenly depopulated by pestilence, and all her piers and thoroughfares left silent and empty, still would the character of her perished people remain written upon the stillen wheels of her factories, in the squalor of her tenements, in the splendor of her mansions. The shell proclaims the size and proportions of the thing that once filled its convolutions. So true is this that we are able to trace the spirit and inspiration of dead peoples in the mere ruins of their cities, in the broken monuments of their genius. The Sphinx and the Pyramid reveal the sense of eternity that was on Egypt; the ruins of the Alhambra disclose the delicacy and daring of the Moorish mind; the broken pillars of the Parthenon declare the repose and restraint of the men of Pelas.—(Edwin Markham, in "Business and the Larger Life," in the February Success.

Oh, That Back!

Ache! Ache! Ache! Takes all the life, all the energy out of you. Makes you miserable. There is danger in it, too. Neglect the warning of a bad back you neglect an appeal from the kidneys. When the back is bad—when it's lame or weak—when it aches—when it's tired, the kidneys are sick—demand attention.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Relieve quickly the aches and pains and weakness of the back. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills—cure urinary troubles—too frequent urinary discharges—retention of the urine—and all dangerous disorders of the kidneys and bladder. If you fail to help the kidneys in time, Diabetes, Dropsy, Bright's Disease are sure to follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by friends and neighbors, by people you know.

COLORADO SPRINGS PROOF

N. Weber St.

Mr. David DeGraff, of 515 North Weber street, says: "If I did not find that Doan's Kidney Pills keep kidney complaint in check, if they had not helped me from the first dose I took, I never would have bought some half dozen boxes at the Jones & Wellington Drug Co.'s store, neither would I have given two boxes to a friend of mine interested in mining property, nor could I be induced to recommend the preparation."

W. Costilla St.

Mr. F. J. Webber of 119 West Costilla street gives the experience of a boy of eight years of age. He says: "I was not in a position to watch him closely out from what his mother and aunt, who look after him, tell me, Doan's Kidney Pills have done him a great amount of good. For three or four years he has symptoms of kidney trouble; complained of his back hurting him, and was troubled with urinary weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills have checked this and he does not complain of his back any longer. My wife saw the pills advertised and got a box at Jones & Wellington Drug Co.'s store. If my statement of this case will be of any use to you I am pleased to give it."

Valley Street

Mr. M. T. White of 806 Valley street, retired farmer, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me of terrible pains from backache and difficulty with the kidney secretions. I could hardly turn in bed and the too frequent action of the secretions was very annoying. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the Jones & Wellington Drug Co.'s store, North Tejon street, and took them according to directions. I felt better in a short time and was finally cured."

N. Wahsatch St.

Mrs. S. Lodge of 328 North Wahsatch street says: "If the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Jones & Wellington's drug store, had not relieved rheumatic pain and backache I could not have been induced to continue the treatment, neither would I recommend through our Colorado Springs newspapers the means I employed to bring me relief. Doan's Kidney Pills act as represented."

"QUO VADIS."

The great play, "Quo Vadis," will be seen at the Opera house Monday evening.

Mr. George Schaeffer is responsible in a manner, for the great success attending the production of Sienkiewicz's dramatization of "Quo Vadis." It is under his stage direction and [illegible] the burning of Rome, the emperor's box at the amphitheater and the Mamertine prison.

It is a semi-religious nature, which style of drama seems at the present time to have particular vogue. A writer in the Philadelphia Record devoted a column to telling the great qualities he saw in "Quo Vadis."

The production as given here will be identical with that enjoyed by the citizens of London, New York and Chicago, and the company numbering 50 people, will be headed by some known actors.

BLANCHE WALSH.

Blanche Walsh, acknowledged to be one of our greatest emotional actresses and celebrated for her rendition of the leading roles in Sardou's dramas and for her impersonation of the character of Josephine in "More Than Queen," will be seen at the Opera house on next Thursday evening, in an entirely new and original play by H. J. W. Dam, entitled "La Vaccaine." This play is said to be of the modern school. Its scenes are laid in Paris at the present day. The character which Miss Walsh will create, is that of a Parisian courtesan, who, after finding the first real love of her life, sacrifices it for the good of the man she loves. Miss Walsh promises a magnificent production of the drama. There will be four complete and elaborate stage settings, and the dressing of the characters, it is stated, will be rich in the extreme.

Some Ways to Stop Nose-Bleed.

Have the child sit up straight, and not let the nostrils tightly together. Wrap a small piece of ice in a piece of coarse woolen and gently rub the surface of the nose with it. This does not stop it you may have the child raise its arms above its head and put a wad of tissue paper under his upper lip, holding it there firmly. Do not blow the child's nose for some time after the bleeding has stopped. The attacks are frequent consult a good physician, as there may be some disease of the blood or blood-vessels which should be treated before things have gone too far.—(Feb. 1st Ladies' Home Journal.

BURNED EAST SIDE RESTAURANT BY FIRE

A one-story frame barn, at No. 518 East Costilla street, was practically destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The burned building was used as a stable by William Jackson. The loss was about $100.

It is supposed that the barn caught fire from sparks blown from an ash heap nearby. An alarm was turned in bringing the central companies to the scene. The fire was soon got under control, but not before the building had been ruined.

NEW INVESTMENT COMPANY FILES INCORPORATION

The Out West Investment company filed a copy of its articles of incorporation at the office of the county clerk yesterday. The incorporators and board of directors for the first year are J. M. Hawkins, Arthur Willitt and N. Acton. The capital stock of the company is $25,000. The new corporation will transact a general real estate, mining, commission and brokerage business.

A copy of the articles of incorporation of the Northern Finance company, of Denver, was also filed for record. This company was organized to purchase the property owned by Hayden & Dickinson. The capital stock is $1,500,000.

BOY HURT BY WAGON ON EAST SIDE

Fred Gannon, 11 years old, was run over by a heavy wagon at his home, near Elizabeth yesterday and his right leg was so badly crushed that it may have to be amputated. The injured boy was brought to this city last evening on a Colorado & Southern train and was taken to St. Francis hospital for treatment.

The lad was trying to climb onto a heavily loaded wagon at his father's ranch when he fell under the wheels and before the team could be stopped he was run over and his leg was crushed.

W. C. T. U. TO MEET NORTH END TODAY

The North End W. C. T. U. union will meet at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Day, 407 North Nevada avenue, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting will be in charge of the state superintendent of physical culture, Miss Harriet Brooks. Program.

[illegible] PLACER

Cripple Creek Mining Company Working Shaft Down 200-foot Point. Is Making Its Mark.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Feb. 7.—The Cripple Creek Mining company, operating the main working shaft of the Hull City Placer of the Independence Consolidated company, has accomplished about 40 feet of sinking since taking up the lease and will put the shaft down as rapidly as possible to the 1,200-foot depth. The shaft is being put down on the main vein, assays from which indicate a large body of low grade ore. The development work as being carried out at present shows up the two ore shoots in the east and west veins, coming together, and it is more than likely that a good body of ore will be found in the junction. The vein in the shaft is dipping rapidly toward the other, and as other ore bodies are from two to three feet in width, it is believed that they will make the junction at about 1,000 feet from the surface.

A good strike has been made on the southwest block of the Amanda on Raven hill by lessees. A carload of two-ounce ore has been shipped and it is expected that more consignments will follow. The mineral is from a two-foot vein at a depth of 75 feet from the surface.

The large new shaft that is being put down on the Delmonico on Bull hill by the Rocky Mountain Leasing company has attained a depth of 125 feet. The shaft is to go to the 500-foot depth. A station has already been cut out at 110 feet where drifts are extended in both directions on a vein that assays nearly pay.

Finnerty & Company, leasing a block of the El Paso company's property, are reported to have cut an eight-inch streak in the old workings on their block that gives excellent pay assays. The ore body runs from six to 18 ounces in gold to the ton in places, and the streak will undoubtedly prove profitable in shipping.

The out of a few hundred pounds of ore that was sent out by Dan Hanley, the Bennett avenue saloonkeeper, to the Eagle sampler was settled for on a basis of two and one-half ounces in gold to the ton. Mr. Hanley received a check for the small shipment, and expects to make further tests of the ore body recently disclosed in the rear of his place.

Lessee Carl Johnson, operating the lease on the Chance of the Anchoria-Leland on Gold hill, has cut his station at the 50-foot depth and started drifting on the Chance vein. Pay ore is expected in the junction of this vein with a cross lead. The Chance vein has yielded considerable in values in other portions of the territory of the Anchoria-Leland.

The Mary Jane company has just granted a new lease on the south end of the Golden Wedge claim on Raven hill. The lease is at 25 per cent royalty and extends for a period of three years.

Ben Mitchell and brother have already started work in the 425-foot shaft of this block. It is expected that extension of the Ophir ore shoot will be encountered between the 450 and 500-foot depth. The levels that have already been run out have encountered no ore.

AMANDA LESSEE OPENS GOOD ORE

Returns From the Shipment Show Values of $113.10 to the Ton—Property Is Being Leased Two Months.

A trial shipment was recently sent out from the J. H. Vincent lease on the Amanda Consolidated property, and returns from the ore were received at the company's offices in this city today. The consignment consisted of two and three-quarters tons of coarse rock and three tons of screenings. The former was settled for at the rate of 5.65 ounces in gold, or $113.10 to the ton and the latter ran $17.60 a ton containing slight values in silver as well as gold.

A short time ago a vein was opened in this block of the Amanda's ground in a short crosscut which was run from the shaft at a depth of 45 feet. Drifting was started and after about 40 feet of work had been accomplished values began to appear in the breast, and after a few tons had been broken a trial shipment was sent out. The vein is about three feet wide, and the whole thing was shipped, which accounts for the low value of the screenings.

The lessees now intend to go to the bottom of the shaft 125 feet deep and crosscut for the vein at that point and run out to determine whether the shoot extends downward or not. The showing appears to be very encouraging.

The property of the Amanda company is located at Windy Point, and another lessee is working on a second block. He is finding float which is assaying as high as 13 ounces to the ton but he has not yet succeeded in his trenching in locating the ore body. The company is almost a close corporation. The president is Carl Krug of Cincinnati, who is a large holder of the stock. When the Cincinnati men first took hold of the ground they worked it on company account, but without success. Last December the leases were granted.

THE OUT WEST INVESTMENT CO.

Has Been Incorporated to Conduct Mining, Real Estate and Insurance Business of Several Well Known Men.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the county clerk, and with the secretary of state on Thursday by the Out West Investment company. The company has a capital stock of $25,000 which is full paid. The incorporators are J. M. Hawkins, Arthur Willett, J. M. Acton and George M. Perry. Mr. Hawkins is president, Mr. Acton vice president and Mr. Willett secretary. The company has opened offices at 116 East Pike's Peak avenue.

The mining business of the Hawkins-Acton Investment company, together with the real estate and rentals and the insurance and loans business of Mr. Perry have been consolidated and the business will be conducted together. The mining companies which are represented are the Amanda Consolidated Gold Mining company, the Cochise Mining and Milling company, the Magnolia and Albion Gold Mining and Milling companies, the Central and Prodigal Gold Mining companies, the Minnie Edith Gold Mining and Tunnel company and the Orocobre Mining and Milling company. The insurance companies represented are the Citizens Insurance, the Pelican Assurance, the Michigan F. and M. Insurance and the Fidelity and Casualty companies.

All of the business men who have consolidated their interests are well known in the city. Mr. Hawkins has been a resident of Colorado Springs for a long time, and is known best as a lawyer, to which calling he will still devote much of his time. Mr. Acton is a mining man of wide experience, while both Mr. Willett and Mr. Perry are well known as promising young business men.

BOULDER MAY HAVE FLOWING WELLS

Mr. Philip D. Wilson Returns From the Boulder Oil Fields Very Much Interested in Prospects.

Mr. Philip D. Wilson of the firm of William P. Bonbright and company, returned yesterday from a two weeks' visit to the Boulder oil fields where he has been looking after the extensive interests of his firm. He reports that he closed up several deals for inside ground while he was there, and made arrangements for beginning work on the properties of the three companies which his firm has organized. Lumber is now on the National ground for the derricks which will be completed inside of 30 days, and by that time the machinery will be installed so that drilling can commence at once.

"The Boulder oil fields are great," Mr. Wilson said, "they are gaining in importance every day, and Pennsylvania oil experts are now making a conservative estimate that the Arnold and McKenzie wells are averaging 50 barrels of oil a day, which is a fine showing. They also assert that when the casing is closed up firmly they will be flowing wells—which would be of great value to the district. Great activity is now noticed in the fields, and I believe that within a few months 20 wells will be pumping oil, and probably many more. Colorado Springs investors got in and got the cream of the bargains, and now Denver men are coming in and buying quite extensively.

"The area of the basin is probably about four by six miles, but there is evidence that there is another oil basin south of the Valmont dike, and other basins may exist as far north as Ft. Collins and as far south as Golden. The Boulder basin, however, is a fact, and land is now in demand at $500 an acre. When I first went there it was selling at $250 an acre and there is a probability that it will be selling at $750 before many weeks."

Mr. Wilson intends to return to the oil fields in a few days, where his firm is interested in a great deal of territory in addition to that which they have put into companies.

[illegible] MINES [illegible] TOWN

As an illustration of the interest which Cripple Creek is beginning to arouse in the east, an article in the New York Tribune serves. The paper states the product on of the camp, having been at the pains to wait several weeks to authenticate the figures by the official report of the Portland company, and, although it puts the production of 1901 at only $24,018,000, it acknowledges that showing a very remarkable and calls attention to the great gold deposits of the camp. So far as the figures are concerned, it is very probable that the original estimates made in Cripple Creek were somewhat exaggerated.

[illegible] WELL [illegible] WATER [illegible]

Some ten days ago owing to the freezing of the water mains at Altman because of the intensely cold weather the mines in that vicinity had to be temporarily closed until the mains were thawed out and even during that time water simply for cleaning purposes was quite dear.

The city was to come to the aid of that portion of the camp and let some of its own water supply flow down to Altman. Now all that trouble is over with and the mines that have been temporarily idle for the past few days have resumed operations and there is no fear that any more trouble will come from that source.

There are four sets of lessees on the Moon-Anchor now in ore and their combined output amounts to about 60 tons per week of smelting grade.

Thery & Taylor are leasing a winze upon their lease on the Gold Dollar. They have not yet made shipment, but are sinking on a streak of ore that is strongly encrusted with sylvanite.

Dan Hanley has sent 500 pounds of ore from the vein opened behind his place of business on East Bennett avenue to the Eagle sampler. If returns justify he will begin operation on an extensive scale.

Tom Fitzgerald is shipping a carload of ore per week from his lease on the Elkton that runs from four to six ounces per ton.

Annain and associates, leasing on the Savage lode claim, will ship a carload of average and coarse rock tomorrow. The entire shipment will average 250 a ton. The screenings contain considerable fine sylvanite, which cannot be saved separately. Work is progressing in the 400-foot level and although the ore shoot has not yet been reached some rich specimens are occasionally found as the drift is extended. A crosscut is also being run from the Good Will tunnel to a point under the ore, which it should cut at a depth of about 600 feet from surface.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Feb. 7.—The mining stock market today was dull and inclined to break. The trading in the mines list held up fairly well, although the business was not at all general; and the preferred list showed one or two good traders, but the majority of stocks were either idle, or weak. Acacia sold as low as 10¾, recovering to 11 at the close and Doctor was active at 44, El Paso gained fractionally to 65¾ and Lexington gained a fraction to 7⅞, but Isabella was low at 27 and Golden Cycle was stationary at 65. Portland was lower at $2.62½. In the preferred list Calera and Sunset-Eclipse were conspicuous by their activity and strength, the former selling at 36, while the silver gained to 14¾, an advance of nearly a cent over yesterday's prices. There was also some activity in Nellie V. which opened very low at 2⅞, but recovered to 3⅛ at the close. The common list was extremely dull on both calls, there only being two stocks traded in on the morning call, and a very slight improvement in the afternoon. The market is not in a generally weak condition, but there is very little demand for stocks, and the market is very sensitive to either buying or selling orders.

EASTERN MARKETS

New York Stock Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, Feb. 7.—The movement of prices in today's stock market became highly irregular but the tone was healthier and the breadth and activity in the market was maintained at yesterday's level. The professional operators who largely absorbed the market operated with considerable confidence and did not hesitate to buy and bid up stocks in new quarters at the same time as they were taking profits on their recent purchases in others.

Amalgamated Copper was about the only stock in the list that showed positive depression. Its loss at one time extended to 2½, but this was reduced by a rally to 1⅞. The selling of the stock was ostensibly due to a reaction in the price of copper and to allegations that the company has oversold its product at the recent low level in the copper market.

The principal factor of strength in the market was Illinois Central which advanced an extreme 3¼ on a volume of dealings very unusual in that rather closely held security. The advance had no other explanation than the relatively low price of the stock compared with other stocks similarly situated and paying only as great or even smaller dividends. The favorable showing of the great corn carrying railroads for December as in the case of Burlington and Rock Island also helped to strengthen this class. There was an energetic buying movement late in the day in Atchison, which seemed to be based on the fact that the movement in this stock this week has not been commensurate with that of others. Brooklyn Transit rose more than a point. Late in the day Manhattan was raided down two points on the news of an unfavorable court decision against the company and this made the closing of the market unsettled.

The bond market was quite active but irregular. Total sales, $2,280,000.

U. S. old 4s advanced ¼ on last call.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S REVIEW

By Associated Press.

New York, Feb. 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Interruption to railway traffic and outdoor work by severe storms was the only unfavorable factor in the business situation during the past week while manufacturing activity and distribution through retail channels was unchallenged. Reports from these are especially encouraging, but a few western points are slow to exhibit improvement. The way earnings continue their monotonous increase for January gaining 7.2 per cent. over last year and 24.2 per cent. over 1900. The fourth week's earnings were somewhat reduced by bad weather.

Famine conditions exist in the market for pig iron. It is doubtful whether there ever was a time in the history of the trade when the metal was so scarce.

While some lines of [illegible] are again easy in price, there is evidence of some improvement in the situation.

Compared with the already course of the previous month or two, the promising markets have been quite dull and weak. Manufacturers of wheat evince a disposition to wait for easier terms.

Final returns of commerce during January are not [illegible] but show an increase of [illegible] last year. [illegible] exports [illegible] an increase of [illegible] imports were [illegible] of [illegible] in the month of January in our foreign trade.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW

[illegible] to more upward. The average level of prices moved slightly downward during January owing to lower speculative prices in cereals and hog products and a heavy decrease in crude rubber and some chemicals. Most of the decline in food products has been recovered since February 1. The close of the week shows a confident feeling prevailing in nearly all lines of distributive trade.

There is a virtual famine alike of crude pig iron and finished products of steel. Premiums of $6 cents per ton on pig iron are paid east and west, a southern railway has gone abroad for its steel rails; Canadian steel billets are receiving Pittsburg and a brisk importing movement is noted for. Crude rubber, after its excited fall and no less exciting rise has steadied at slight advances on last week. Tin and lead are also higher. The world's statistics of wheat movement have been on the whole rather bullish this week and coupled with cold weather caused some strengthening. The volume of business has been of a scalping character however. Toward the close of the week some export inquiry developed in wheat. The margin in favor of the cash article has widened during the past six weeks and the actual stuff is really higher than a month ago.

Hog products have advanced with the coarse grains and also because receipts of hogs have been small.

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week aggregate 4,890,467 bushels, as against 3,702,368 bushels last week and 4,997,813 bushels in this week last year. Wheat exports July 1, 1901, to date, 32 weeks, aggregate 170,146,977 bushels, as against 119,776,185 bushels last season.

Raw wool has remained steady on moderate demand restricted supplies. Recent London wool sale prices are above parity with our markets. Leather remains steady and in fair demand despite the weakening in prices of hides. Demand for sugar remains low and prices are without material change on the week while increased weight of coffee supplies has caused another reduction in price.

Failures for the week number 247 as against 303 last week and 250 in this week last year.

Canadian failures for the week number 29 as against 48 last week and 34 in this week a year ago.

In Case of Accident.

Accidents will happen. Mother strains her back lifting a sofa. Father is hurt in the shop. Children are forever falling and bruising themselves. There is no preventing these things, but their worst consequences are averted with Perry Davis' Painkiller. No other remedy approaches it for the relief of sore strained muscles. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

WORKING ON THE APPROPRIATIONS

Aldermen Have Begun Filing Their Estimates on Next Year's Expenses---Retrenchment the Cry.

When the members of the city council had spent an hour on the appropriations ordinance last night Chairman Clark of the finance committee took the floor and declared himself and his committee on the subject. He said that retrenchment would be the policy of his committee and that so long as he had any power as chairman of the committee this policy would be insisted upon in every department of the city government. He said he would favor cutting down every appropriation to the last degree and then going down the line and cutting off ten per cent from everything.

He referred to the last year's in no uncertain terms as having been a hard one for the taxpayers and said that this year the city's expenditures must be kept within the city's revenues. "Only by living within your revenues can you live at all," he said. "Otherwise warrants must be registered and, so far as I have any power there shall not be a warrant registered this year."

Better progress was made on the appropriations ordinance last night than has been made on the first night of its consideration for several years. Nothing was definitely settled the council always taking action informally on the different appropriations before making final disposition of any. The items of charges, salaries of officials, and appropriations for public institutions were practically settled however, there being a general disposition to hold everything down to the figures of a year ago except where increases are necessitated by the operation of law. Exceptions to this rule were indicated in regard to the city physician and the city attorney, the former being scheduled for a raise of $.00 per year and the latter of $100 in salary.

So far as indicated in the proceedings of last night the fights will be made on increases in the appropriations for health department maintenance and for increasing the efficiency of the fire department for protection to the north end residence district. The health department asked for an increase from $5,700 to $11,500, this including a $5,000 appropriation for taking care of smallpox patients. It is likely that this appropriation will not be allowed or that it will at least be greatly cut down, and the city be allowed to take its chances in this regard with the power to issue a casualty appropriation should occasion arise. The fire department desires to build an addition to the No. 2 hose house and station the steamer there, this requiring the expenditure of about $3,000 in construction and an additional increase of $2,700 for maintenance.

The appropriation for printing will have to be practically doubled this year on account of the increased frequency with which the reports of the treasurer and auditor must be published.

A number of the city departments have not yet made any announcement as to their needs for the next year.

The council will meet again tomorrow night for further consideration of the appropriations.

Wanderings of a Demented Woman

Mrs. Lizzie Veeder, who is said to be demented, was found wandering about on the prairie near Manitou Junction several miles east of this city, yesterday afternoon by a ranchman. She had been roaming about all day and her clothing had been torn into shreds by the barb wire fences she had climbed while making her way across the prairie from Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Veeder was brought to the Santa Fe railroad depot by the man who found her and from there was taken in the ambulance to the sheriff's office. County Physician Richardson was summoned and declared that the woman was demented. She talked in a rambling manner but was able to tell who she was. She said she was a housekeeper for John Eplinger of No. 908 Miles avenue. She declared that she was on her way east when she was found.

Mrs. Veeder is about 50 years old. She is being cared for by the matron of the county jail.

BRAIN VS. BRAWN IN THE COLLEGE

[illegible] President Eliot of Harvard and Dean Meiklejohn of Brown Take Opposite Views—Victories are Valuable.

Considerable good-natured jeering split by different college professors all over the country in a contention over the relative prominence of athletics over the classical attainments to be derived at the different large educational institutions of the country. Some such authorities declare that the popularity of some of the great educational institutions is due directly to their victories on the field, and that the increased attendance of certain colleges is in direct ratio to their standing in the list of championships. President Eliot of Harvard, in his recent annual report, makes the announcement that the attendance of Harvard is entirely unaffected by either its losses or its victories in regard to its sports. Then comes Dean Meiklejohn of Brown university, who makes a stout assertion to the contrary, saying that the present prosperity and popularity of Brown is due in no small measure to its prominence in the world of athletics.

Acting President D. S. Parsons of Colorado college said yesterday:

"There is no doubt but that the athletic movement has attracted a great amount of public attention to our colleges, and as most of them are dependent for support upon the public I should say that it is a good thing for a college to be victorious in its athletic encounters with other institutions. All the world loves a victor. There is no doubt in my mind but that Colorado college has been materially benefited by its victories. I know that President Slocum was always very keen about the college winning its honors on the gridiron, and attached much value to it not only for its effect upon the town but upon the standing of the college as well.

"On the other hand, I know that the standing of Yale was not affected during the period of its losses. I hardly think that any young man would take into consideration the victories of a college in determining which he would attend, and while the victorious college may be more popular with the public I do not think its pennants influence its numerical strength. I should say that its victories were principally beneficial because of the advertisement which the honor confers in soliciting funds for the erection of the Science hall. I have no doubt but that the task was less difficult because Colorado college had been unusually successful in its sporting combats for the past few years.

"I think that if American colleges were more inclined to follow the English [illegible] in athletics, it would be better all around. Here, we delegate a certain few to represent the college in athletic encounters with other institutions. For instance, the attendance at Harvard is something like 4,000. Of this number, probably not more than 200 to 300 are actively identified with the athletic life of the college. In England, every student takes an interested and personal part in the athletics of the institution. In America, most of the students are content to sit around and do the shouting, but that is all. There should be a more general interest taken in sports of all kinds. The athletic movement has had a most healthy effect upon the morals and manners of the student at college. It makes a good use of the animal spirits of the young man, makes him more gentle, and a better man all around. The barbarous practice of hazing declines in proportion to the standard of the athletic training of the school. Some of the greatest athletes of the schools are also its best scholars, and make the best men when they leave school.

"I am always proud when we win; proud of the boys and proud of the school. I think the town also shares this feeling of loyalty to the college. Whatever may be the effect of a series of victories upon the college, I think it is safe to say that it is only beneficial in every way upon the individuals at the school."

STREET CAR BOSSES [illegible]

For the third time recently the foreigners employed on the construction of the new street car line to the canons have had a serious fight. The latest row occurred Wednesday, but fortunately no one was injured.

Peter Pearas appeared before Justice Ruby Wednesday evening and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Grist Hyropolis, foreman of the Greek laborers. Pearas said that he had been discharged by the foreman, and when he remonstrated the foreman threw a stone at him and then tried to cut him with a knife. The knife did no other damage except cutting Pearas' clothing. Hyropolis was arrested yesterday and arraigned before Justice Ruby. He furnished $400 bail for his appearance today.

[illegible] BLOCK ON [illegible] STREET

J. P. Ware, who owns property on West Huerfano street, directly south of the viaduct, is expecting to erect upon it a two-story brick building for business purposes. The structure will be connected with the viaduct, a bridge being run from the viaduct to the second story of the building.

The building will cost approximately $6,000.

Fairborn Suspect Is Photographed

John Moyass, who is believed by Sheriff Gilbert and his deputies to answer the description of the murderer of Harold Fairborn and the assassinant of his sweetheart, Florence, in Denver, New Year's eve, was taken from the county jail to a photographer's yesterday morning and his picture was taken. Moyass made no resistance. He did not seem to understand the significance of his arrest, which is for larceny in connection with the theft of a horse.

A picture will be sent to the Denver police today and will be shown to Florence Fairborn. If she thinks he looks like the man who committed the crimes, Moyass will be taken to Denver.

The prisoner was arraigned yesterday before Judge Luby on the charge of vagrancy and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

To Locate the Steamer at North End Station

If the recommendation of the fire committee carries sufficient weight with the members of the city council to secure the necessary appropriation, the steam fire engine that has been owned by the city for the last three years and never has been used at a fire, will be commissioned for service and stationed at the north end hose house as soon as the work necessary to prepare a place for it can be done.

Chief Baty has suggested, and Chairman Stark of the fire committee, has recommended, that the steamer be equipped and put into commission at the No. 2 hose house. To do this it will be necessary to erect at the station an addition about 20 feet wide, which will cost approximately $3,000.

In his report to the fire committee, Chief Baty makes the statement that there is at the present time an insufficient water pressure in the northern part of the city to successfully cope with a conflagration of serious proportions should one occur. He calls attention to the fact that the reason why the steamer should be stationed at the No. 2 house is that while two horses could take it to the business center of the city in a very few moments without great work it would be much harder for even three horses to haul it from the central station to the extreme north end of the city and that moreover by reason of the lighter pressure in the north end of town a fire could be better held in check down town while the steamer was being brought to the scene than in the north end where pressure is weak.

If the appropriation weathers the storm in the council chamber during the next 10 days the work of equipping the north end station for the engine will be undertaken at once.

Champion Shots Scheduled to Meet

Probably the most important gun event in Colorado for a long time is scheduled to take place in Colorado Springs on Washington's birthday or thereabouts. The exact time for the match has not yet been decided upon. Three state championships come in and have already been arranged.

A. J. Lawton has challenged John W. Garrett for the Shemwell trophy and state championship at 100 targets. W. W. Shemwell has challenged Mr. Garrett for the Spalding medal and state championship at 100 targets. Mr. Garrett has challenged W. W. Shemwell for the Association state championship at 50 targets. All these events will be shot at the broadmoor rounds probably on Washington's birthday. The two 100 target events will be open to all.

A number of other events will be arranged for the shoot.

[illegible] MRS. JANKS, [illegible] PIONEER

Mrs. Jane L. Janks died yesterday morning at her home No. 318 East Cimarron street. Mrs. Janks was 80 years old and came to Colorado in the early days. The funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock this afternoon at the First Baptist church. Rev. Dr. Edward Brain will officiate. Friends are invited.

Mrs. Janks was a member of the First Baptist church of this city for 35 years and was always active in church affairs. Recently, however, she was unable to attend church on account of failing health. Her mental vigor was good until recently.

ANTLERS WIN

Antlers Bowling Team Took Match from Colorado Springs City.

The Centennials, of Denver, Cancelled Their Contest With the Locals—DeBerry Makes Record for the Alleys.

In a poorly played match on the Antlers alleys last night, the Antlers team defeated the Colorado Springs bowling club. Although the Antlers won by a good margin, there was nothing to brag about in the play of either team.

Manager Gus Albert, of the Antlers team, received a telegram yesterday stating that the Centennials of Denver, who were scheduled to play the locals here tomorrow night, desired to cancel the match. No reason was given in the telegram, but it was stated that an explanatory letter had been forwarded.

If one of the Denver teams does not come down for a game tomorrow a match will be arranged for the Antlers with a local team.

Dr. DeBerry now holds the record for the alleys. Several days ago he bowled 255, the highest mark reached as yet at the Antlers.

The score of last night's game follows:

ANTLERS

Player	First.	Second	Third	Total
De Berry	186	145	125	456
McClemmons	122	117	164	403
Taylor	170	144	143	457
Thompson	140	158	178	476
Ansley	60	160	124	453
Total	777	784	784	2295

Player.	First	Second.	Third.	Total.
Graham	115	148	127	[illegible]
Sargeant	138	172	199	459
Jackson	108	93	96	297
Delany	142	173	176	491
Helmer	125	133	116	374
Total	628	699	714	2041

Antlers won by 254 pins, taking all three game.

TEST

Short Line Making a New Experiment.

Locomotive Equipped With Flanges on All Driving Wheels to Determine Practicability of Such Equipment.

Under the direction of General Manager Ridgway of the Short Line experiments are being made with one of the line's heavy locomotives to determine the practicability of having flanges on all the driving wheels of the engines used on mountain roads. These engines now have flanges on only the front and rear driving wheels and these flanges wear out quickly. It is thought that if flanges were put on the driving wheels the friction would be distributed and the flanges last longer.

Engine No. 4, of the Short Line's equipment was equipped with flanges on all eight driving wheels and yesterday Manager Ridgway took it over the line as far as Point Rubidoux to make the first test. Nothing definite could be ascertained as it will probably be several weeks before results will be known. The first experiment was made yesterday morning.

DON'T HAND OUT MONEY

For something that is not the best. When you are buying, remember that the best is always cheapest, and a poor article is dear at any price. If it is groceries, the best and safest way is to bring or send your order to us, and then you know you are getting the best there is. The cheap kind we do not handle. It doesn't pay. No matter what price we ask, you can always depend on the quality.
